Dear God:

Lately I feel as if things have come between You and me. A few of these things are:

I would like to spend more time with You. A good time each day for me is:

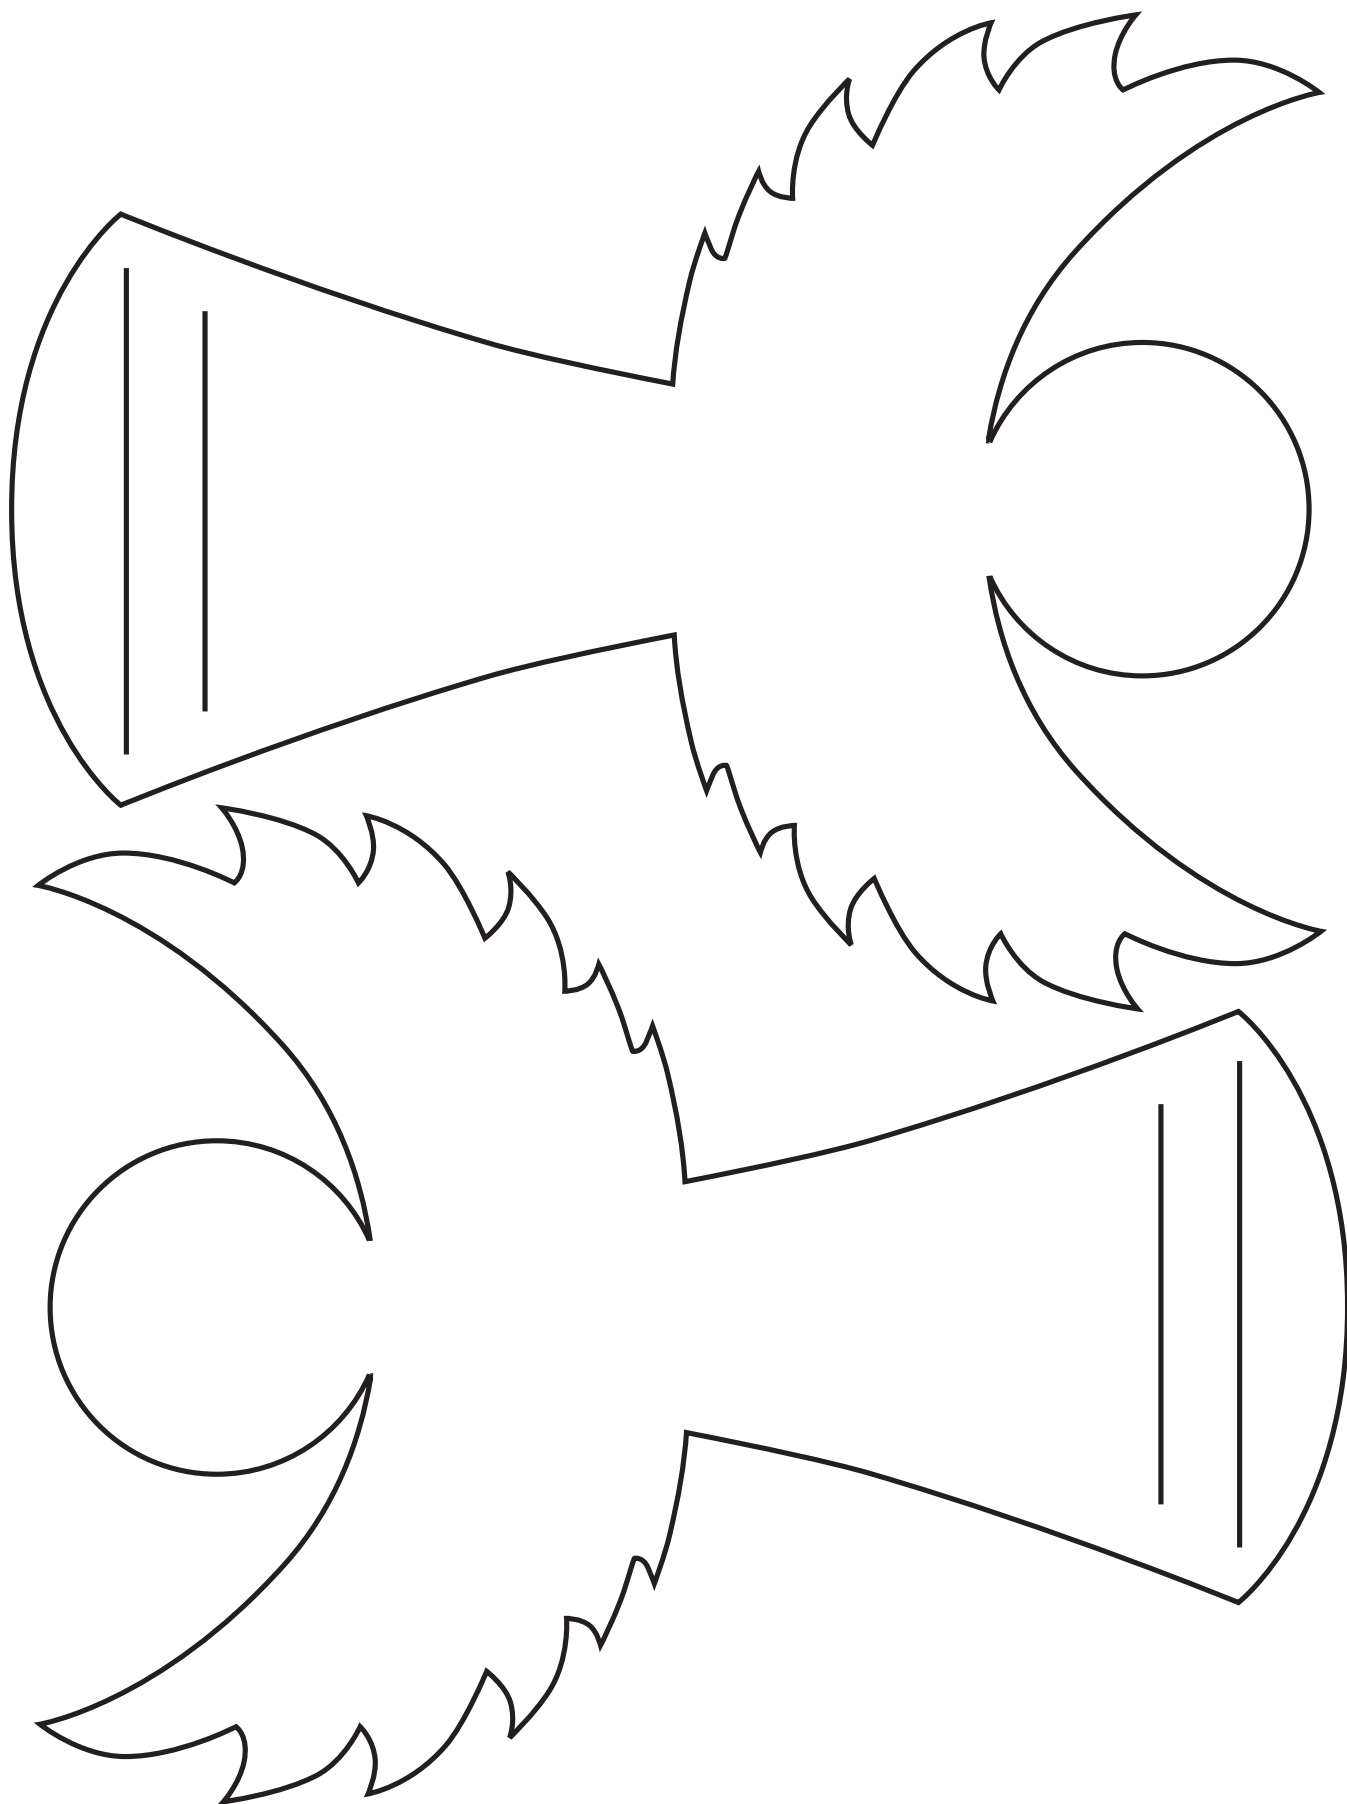

It would be helpful if we could meet at the same place each day. A quiet place where You could find me is:

When we are together, I'd like to talk to You about:

As I read my Bible, I'll be listening for You to talk to me in a still small voice. I'm looking forward to our next meeting!

I love You,

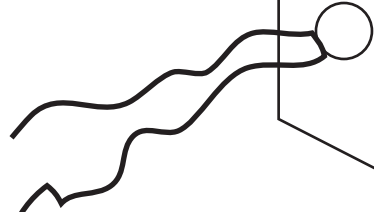

LESSON 11

NET KIDS SCRIPT
(for Lesson 14)

- Ana: Emiko, what did you get for Christmas?
- Emiko: You sound like some of my friends with whom I talked recently. They asked me what I got before they even said, "Merry Christmas!"
- Ulla: But isn't Christmas supposed to be about giving?
- Ana: It is. I like to think of Christmas as the great gift exchange.
- Ulla: Huh? But you said . . .
- Emiko: What she means is that God sent Jesus to us as a gift . . .
- Ana: Of salvation. And we give Him the gift . . .
- Emiko: Of ourselves!
- Ulla: I understand now. Ana, Emiko, what did you give for Christmas?
- Emiko: I am a little tired of thinking about Christmas now. I am going to try to give myself to God every day of the new year.
- Ana: You will see what a happy new year you are going to have!
